

MEDIA ROOM

As Canada's first and only forum dedicated to Indigenous-led projects, the Indigenous-led Projects Forum brings together Indigenous, Industry and Government leaders to discuss the biggest opportunities and challenges facing Indigenous proponents.

Media passes are available for in-person or virtual access to watch Keynote Speakers and Panel Presentations.

Event highlights include:

Keynote Speaker: Hon. George Pirie, Minister of Mines.

Speaker: Frank Busch, CEO, Nation Fund

Speaker: Penny Favel, Vice President, Indigenous Relations, Hydro One

Speaker: Pat Chilton, CEO, Five Nations Energy Inc

Speaker: Gordon Wabasse, Chief of Webequie First Nation

Speaker: John Bonin, Manager Indigenous Affairs, Aecon

Panel Discussion: Ring of Fire Indigenous-led Infrastructure

Panel Discussion: Transmission Lines: Past, Present, Future of Indigenous Proponency

Panel Discussion: Financing Indigenous Projects

Panel Discussion: First Nation-led Major Projects

Media Registration

Complimentary in-person or virtual registration is available to credentialed journalists and media.

Members of the media can register online for passes at:

<https://ilpf.eventbrite.ca> and enter the following code: ilpf-media

To obtain a media pass, journalists must be currently employed by a news publication or organization.

On arrival, pick up your media badge at the Registration Desk.

Media Room

You are welcome to visit the Media Room for press releases, device charging, media kits, and onsite interviews with speakers.

Questions ?

Contact our Public Relations team at:

Stephanie Ash

Firedog Communications

stephanie@firedogpr.com

807-472-5276

Kaylee Lambert

kaylee@firedogpr.com

807- 630-5724

Follow #indigenouslpf for news and updates